

$10 Tasting Fee waived with bottle purchase.
10% discount applied to any case purchase.

2015 Michael Gill Cellars "Black Tie" Alicante Bouchet— $45
Gold Medal— 2017 Florida International Wine Competition

Bright medium dusty ruby color. Lively, fruity, funky oaky earthy aromas of raisinettes, tree bark, huckleberries, and toasted embers with an lively, dry full body and a warming, captivating, buoyant finish with grippy, firm, barky tannins and moderate oak.
71 cases produced

2013 Michael Gill Cellars Big Rock Syrah – $48

Gold Medal—2017 Florida State Fair Wine Competition

Bright medium black ruby color. Delicate, fruity aromas of dried blueberries and cherries, melted toffee, delicate spice, and double mint gum with a soft, crisp, dry-yet-fruity medium-full body and a tingling, medium-long creamy vanilla, cedar, and peppercorns finish with crunchy, dusty tannins and moderate oak. An attractively juicy, chewy syrah that will be quite versatile.
210 cases produced

2013 Black Tie Syrah— $65

Gold Medal—2016 Tastings International World Wine Championship

Bright, dark, deep purple color. Lively, spicy aromas of cherry chutney, pickled tomatoes, and crispy chicken skin with an oily, tangy, dry-yet-fruity medium-full body and a warming, distinctive, medium-long alpine menthol mint, chocolate toffee, cedar, and mocha finish with silky tannins and light oak. A deliciously fruity and complex syrah that is sure to please.
210 cases produced